

Helping
Our Children
PRODUCTIONS

presents the

DawnTalk™ Childcare Audio Handbook

Introduction –

The Crisis:

Society today offers families, educators and especially children a very limited set of options to deal with “unacceptable” behaviors and those options all stem from an authoritarian, punitive mind set. While this basis was appropriate for developing and promoting the transition from agrarian villager to industrial factory worker, we no longer live in that world. Yet we treat children with the same tools of 200+ years ago.

The Answer:

DawnTalk™, is a method of communicating and guiding children without shaming, blaming, judging, belittling, threatening or punishing. Families and educators who use these methods help children avoid behaviors such as resisting, rebelling, retaliating, bullying, withdrawing and even addictive behaviors. Ultimately, DawnTalk™ is about building a fair world for children.

DawnTalk™ –

- Teaches Friendly Communication Skills that help children, parents and educators honor social equality and respect for individuals
- Creates a balance between unbridled freedom and oppressive control
- Balances individual independence and social integration, by replacing punitive commands with respectful guidelines.
- Maximizes a child’s opportunities for involvement in both education and society at large.
- Provides educators and parents with an open, honest understandable method of communicating with children as well as building life-long trust.

... and more!

What others are saying about DawnTalk™ –

“Dawn Fry’s childcare handbook shares significant strategies for creating and maintaining caring, safe and positive learning environments. It is a must read for anyone working with children – your own or others.”

- Marvin Marshall, Ed.D and Author of Discipline without Stress, Punishments or Rewards

“DawnTalk moves beyond insight to wisdom.”

- David Shields, PhD & Brenda Bredemeir, PhD and Authors of Character Development and Physical Activity

“I have found Dawn’s program to be the most effective tool I have ever used. Her down to earth wisdom and support empowered me to realize my own potentials and turn them into realities.

I highly recommend Ms. Fry’s service to all families, teachers and directors.”

- Elizabeth Little, owner Sausal Creek School, Oakland, California

DawnTalk™ for Families, Educators and ChildCare Professionals –

When and where is DawnTalk™ appropriate and useful – EVERYWHERE! At home families can build stronger relationship and encourage children to learn and grow in confidence and safety. Professionals can integrate skills learned at home and combine them with structured and directed learning that removes limits and allows children to learn beyond rote memorization. This program has been described as the first truly Third Wave method of communicating social skills to children.

DawnTalk™ was originally released in 2002 and available only to Educators and Childcare Professionals, but NOW you can have all of the benefits and results starting today just click over to <http://www.DawnTalk.com> and get your copy today!

About Helping Our Children Productions -

Dawn Fry has been a licensed childcare provider and educator for twenty-five years, during which she has garnered more than 60,000 hours of direct professional experience working with children. Ms. Fry is also the founder of Helping Our Children Productions, a publishing company that is dedicated to providing products, materials, training and support for families and educators to create a fair world in which children can live without fear of “autocratic” demands. DawnTalk™ is the educational key to the Information Age.

Speaking on Behalf of Children

DawnTalk™ Childcare Audio Handbook

created with

Technology, the system by which a society provides it’s members with those things needed or desired.

Friendly Technology, social skills for a global community.

4200 Park Boulevard, #226
Oakland, CA 94602
T: (510) 638-1464
F: (206) 202-2225
E: Dawn@DawnTalk.com
www.DawnTalk.com